2025/2026 Academic Calendar Principles

Principle 1	The published calendar identifies activity at institutional level only.
Principle 2	The published calendar is based on a standard September start for undergraduate (UG) and postgraduate taught (PGT) students.
Principle 3	Dates relating to the operation of non-standard courses are held locally by Faculty.
Principle 4	Semester 1 examination resits take place during the semester 2 first sit assessment period in May (AP2).
Principle 5	Semester 2 examination resits take place during the assessment period in July (AP3).
Principle 6	Formal examinations are facilitated by the Student Lifecycle team and Digital Assessment Centre (DAC).
Principle 7	Submission dates for elements not assessed under Principle 6 are set and delivered locally and should occur prior to the assessment periods of the semester in which the module is delivered.
Principle 8	Module marks are presented to a Module Assessment Board (MAB) in the semester following completion.
Principle 9	UG final or exit awards (CertHE/DipHE/BA), progression decisions (moving from one stage to another) and agreement of resits are presented to a Progression and Award Board (PAB) at the end of each academic year of study.
Principle 10	PGT final or exit award outcomes are normally presented to a Progression and Award Board (PAB) following completion of 120 credits/PG Diploma stage and upon completion of the full course.
Principle 11	The deadline for the processing of awards for students eligible to attend the university's formal graduations are: Winter graduation – 21st November 2025 Summer graduation – 29th June 2026
