WELCOME TO YOUR AWARD CEREMONIES

My people. The sorting hat has spoken. Chuffed to little meatballs in honour of your magnificence in completing your academic studies to date. You are officially a super-certified genius.

The portfolio of specialised skills attained at BCU are sure to equip you for success, world domination and beyond. I couldn't be prouder.

I congratulate you from my toes to the top of my pointy head. Know this, and know it well: you rock.

Sir Lenny Henry
Chancellor of the University

Welcome to our Virtual Graduation Ceremonies. While we have to wait a little longer to welcome you to our in person ceremonies, this is a day for celebration for our graduates, and for your families, friends and supporters.

As Vice-Chancellor of the University I take particular pleasure in these ceremonies which mark the great achievements of our graduates, and celebrate the power of education to help to transform lives. As our graduates become alumni of the University, we look forward to continuing to work together. You are part of our community and we take great pride in what you have achieved.

On behalf of all of the staff of the University, I wish all our graduates every success in their chosen careers.

Professor Philip Plowden
Vice-Chancellor

CELEBRATE ON SOCIAL MEDIA

We're so proud of every student graduating and we'd love to see your photos and posts celebrating this fantastic day. If you're sharing on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram, remember to include #IAMBCU.

Don't forget to share the special clip we will send you (see page 41 for more details).
