

EDU 7362 Coaching and Mentoring module - fully funded CPD for ITE partner schools

Could you develop your skills to support beginning teachers?

Are you interested in using research to improve practice?

MENTOR
INSPIRE

Do you want to learn how to develop as a mentor?

EDUCATE
COACH

Can you commit to a guided online study module?

SHARE

INFLUENCE

ENCOURAGE

The BCU School of Education and Social Work provides an online, self-directed CPD opportunity for partner schools and colleges to enhance the role of in-school mentoring.

The course provides mentors with:

- Guided critical reflection on the role of professional and purposeful mentoring in an educational context
- Opportunities to reflect on the impact of their mentoring practice using a BCU adaptation of the DfE Standards for mentoring (2014)
- Insight into research informed practice across phases and subjects related directly to their context
- 20 credits towards a BCU Masters qualification

• Enrol during the autumn term – details shared in Mentor CPD Event 1

- Study starts in January and submission is September (after the summer break)
- All resources provided on BCU Moodle page
- Access to BCU libraries and academic support
- Ongoing online discussion with BCU tutors

Contact Craig.Davis@bcu.ac.uk for enrolment details