6	Course Description
	Future Media is a postgraduate MSc course that ‘does what it says on the tin’: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• ‘Future’ is finding your future and exploiting future developments in the digital marketing and advertising industry.</li> <li>• ‘Media’ is acquiring your digital media skill-set with marketing professionals, media agencies and emerging technologies.</li> </ul> The MSc Future Media course combines professional agency practice with the latest industry insights and authoritative academic methods. It’s a winning formula and a proven pathway to success for our graduates whether they are progressing into further study or industry: “...Future Media gave me the tools to walk straight into this job at Decathlon. I just wanted to thank you all for the instruction and constructive feedback [on my Final Major Project] ...” Siggy Simon MSc Future Media: Pro graduate 2014 “...I sincerely appreciate the Future Media team ... I have received admission for a PhD study in Information Systems at De Montfort University beginning this month. My research is an extension of my [Final Major Project] from the course...”. Emmanuel Ochoga, MSc Future Media graduate 2015 What's covered in the course? Our courses help you to gain real-world experience and knowledge so that you are ‘ready for industry’ when you graduate. In your year on the course, you’ll be planning digital marketing and advertising campaigns, developing brand and product promotions, making mobile, social and video content with industry professionals and building new user journeys with some of the best production resources in the country. For the first nine months, you’ll have classes across three days per week at Birmingham City University’s City Centre campus. For the remaining three months you’ll be working on the Final Major Project of your choice to professionalise your own expertise in the digital skill-sets you want to develop. You’ll get to work with our industry partners such as Unruly, Mediacom, Think Jam, Found and BBC Creative as well as work in multidisciplinary teams with other NTI courses to broaden your skill-sets as well as fine-tune your own expertise with your MA and MSc peers.

Overall, Future Media offers you the opportunity to grow in your own professional development and academic progression whilst collaborating with your peers and working with industry professionals on traditional, new and emerging digital media in marketing and advertising communications projects.

Please note list of optional modules is indicative only. Students' choice will not be guaranteed for optional modules but a fair and transparent process will be adopted and shared with students.

13 Overall Student Workload and Balance of Assessment

Overall student workload consists of class contact hours, independent learning and assessment activity, with each credit taken equating to a total study time of around 10 hours. While actual contact hours may depend on the optional modules selected, the following information gives an indication of how much time students will need to allocate to different activities at each level of the course.

- Scheduled Learning includes lectures, practical classes and workshops, contact time specified in timetable
- Directed Learning includes placements, work-based learning, external visits, on-line activity, Graduate+, peer learning
- Private Study includes preparation for exams

The balance of assessment by mode of assessment (e.g. coursework, exam and in-person) depends to some extent on the optional modules chosen by students. The approximate percentage of the course assessed by coursework, exam and in-person is shown below.

Level 7

Workload

% time spent in timetabled teaching and learning activity

Activity	Number of Hours
Scheduled Learning	360
Directed Learning	1080
Private Study	360
Total Hours	1800

Balance of Assessment

Assessment Mode	Percentage
Coursework	80%
Exam	20%
In-Person	0
