6	Course Description
	Looking for a law conversion course in Birmingham? Our LLM Professional Law is open to graduates from all subjects. Our LLM Professional Law course, which incorporates the Postgraduate Diploma in Law (PGDL) / Common Professional Examination (CPE), will provide you with a Master's-level qualification. You don't need a Law degree to apply - the course is available to any student with a qualifying honours degree in any subject. What's covered in the course? While most providers deliver the course at graduate level as the Common Professional Examination / Postgraduate Diploma in Law (PGDL), we have designed this course so that successful completion provides both a qualification at Master's level and professional body accreditation. This course is accredited by the Joint Academic Stage Board, which represents the Solicitors Regulatory Authority and the Bar Standards Board of England and Wales, and upon completion you are eligible to undertake the next stage of legal training (the Legal Practice course if you want to become a solicitor or the Bar Professional Training course if you want to become a barrister).

	The admission requirements for this course are stated on the course page of the BCU website at https://www.bcu.ac.uk/.

11	Course Learning Outcomes
1	Enable a non-law graduate to demonstrate thorough knowledge of the legal system in England and Wales, its relationship with European Union law and the fundamental areas of English law, including an appreciation of the political, historical, global, economic and ethical contexts in which the legal system and the substantive legal principles operate and how these substantive areas relate to each other.
2	Critically analyse, evaluate and produce a synthesis of well-established and innovative legal rules, doctrine, policy, principles and concepts; to apply this to a diverse range of practical and theoretical issues and problems, within a practice-led learning environment.
3	Confidently apply acquired knowledge to complex legal situations in order to make sophisticated judgements based on reasoned-choice, and where there is ambiguity or uncertainty recognise potential alternative solutions supported with sound evidence to deliver rational arguments to justify conclusions.
4	Demonstrate the ability to learn autonomously and develop a rigorous approach to research that uses both primary and secondary sources to generate acquisition of comprehensive legal knowledge in regard to the theory and application of law in the fundamental areas of English law and an additional law option.
5	Assume responsibility for further enhancing skills necessary for professional practice and to refine current employability skills, to use the English language with precision, orally and in writing, in relation to legal issues, in order to make effective oral and written presentations which are coherent and comprehensible to others and meet expectations in the workplace; to develop other pervasive skills, including: making relevant use of numerical and statistical information derived from primary and secondary sources when constructing an argument, producing work which is presented and formatted using standard software packages, working co-operatively, ethically and professionally with others.
6	To develop a comprehensive knowledge and critical understanding of established research theories in addition to the intellectual, practical skills and techniques applicable to conducting a significant piece of legal research or undertaking an extended project or placement that demonstrates advanced appreciation of a legal subject studied on the programme to Master's level.

13 Overall Student Workload and Balance of Assessment

Overall student workload consists of class contact hours, independent learning and assessment activity, with each credit taken equating to a total study time of around 10 hours. While actual contact hours may depend on the optional modules selected, the following information gives an indication of how much time students will need to allocate to different activities at each level of the course.

- Scheduled Learning includes lectures, practical classes and workshops, contact time specified in timetable
- Directed Learning includes placements, work-based learning, external visits, on-line activity, Graduate+, peer learning
- Private Study includes preparation for exams

The balance of assessment by mode of assessment (e.g. coursework, exam and in-person) depends to some extent on the optional modules chosen by students. The approximate percentage of the course assessed by coursework, exam and in-person is shown below.

Level 7

Workload

12% time spent in timetabled teaching and learning activity

Activity	Number of Hours
Scheduled Learning	208
Directed Learning	259
Private Study	1333
Total Hours	1800

Balance of Assessment

Assessment Mode	Percentage
Coursework	50%
Exam	50%
In-Person	0
