6	Course Description
	Do you want to study an MBA with Birmingham City University? Our International MBA will give you a global view of international management. The international business environment is rapidly changing, and a different market reality is emerging. As a student of today and manager of the future, you need to adapt and adopt flexible patterns of thinking and behaviour to succeed as a global manager of tomorrow. The International Masters in Business Administration (IMBA) has been designed with this in mind, as it explores in detail the nature and implications of the changes in the business environment and provides you with the skills and mind-set that will allow you to operate effectively within such an unstable and unpredictable environment. You'll also be taught to successfully lead the organisations of the future, regardless of sector or country. What's covered in the course? The course is designed to meet the needs of contemporary international businesses and blends academic excellence and professional skills, equipping you with marketable skills to operate and excel at strategic level across different sectors and in different countries. The course has a strong emphasis on employability and enhancing employability skills and will help you develop general communication and inter-personal skills. You will emerge from our International MBA with well-developed powers of analysis, clear perspectives on strategy and strategic thinking, creative problem solving, an entrepreneurial mind-set and highly effective communication and research skills - all of which are demanded by employers around the world. Should you wish to start your own business, you will have the opportunity to explore and test your ideas in a supportive environment. The course has been designed to provide graduates with expertise in strategy, marketing, leadership, finance, global human resource management, international business, entrepreneurship, operations and project management, and research skills. You become part of the international community while on the course, as you will study with students from different parts of the globe. Through our links with industry, the learning experience takes you from the classroom to the factory floor, through sponsored study/field trips

	to companies in the region, and with our organised Professional placement course, you have the opportunity to gain valuable work experience while you study. The international nature of the course is derived through a variety of means including the student body, the teaching team and the use of international teaching material. Moreover, you can choose to do your Professional placement overseas.
