
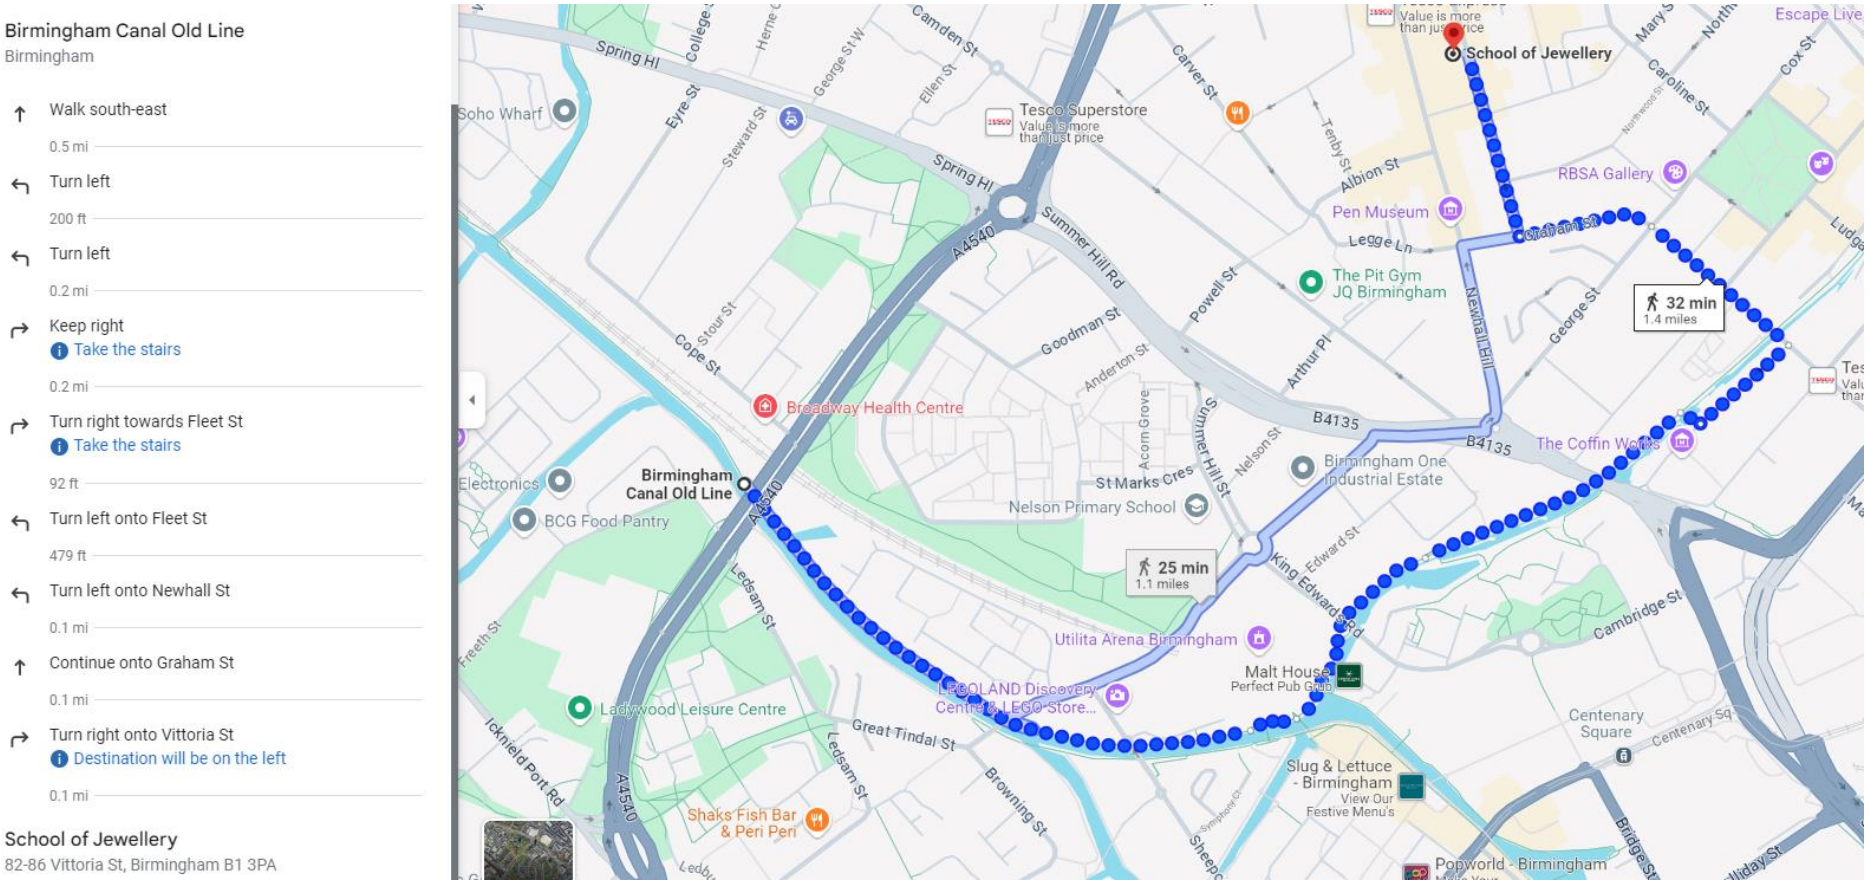
Library of Birmingham to School of Jewellery – 20 minutes (0.7 miles) [Click here for this route on Google Maps]

Take a short but pleasant walk past City Centre Gardens and along the canal starting from the Library of Birmingham, a popular place for students to be.

Did you know? The Library of Birmingham is spread over 10 levels and is home to over 1 million books, making it the largest public library in Europe.



Birmingham Canal Old Line to School of Jewellery – 30 minutes (1.4 miles) [Click here for this route on Google Maps]

This walk takes you along the Birmingham Canal Old Line which has been there for hundreds of years – learn about the history whilst walking along the canal path on your way to study.

Did you know? Birmingham Canal Old Line was first authorised in 1768, and the first line was completed in 1769, making it over 250 years old!

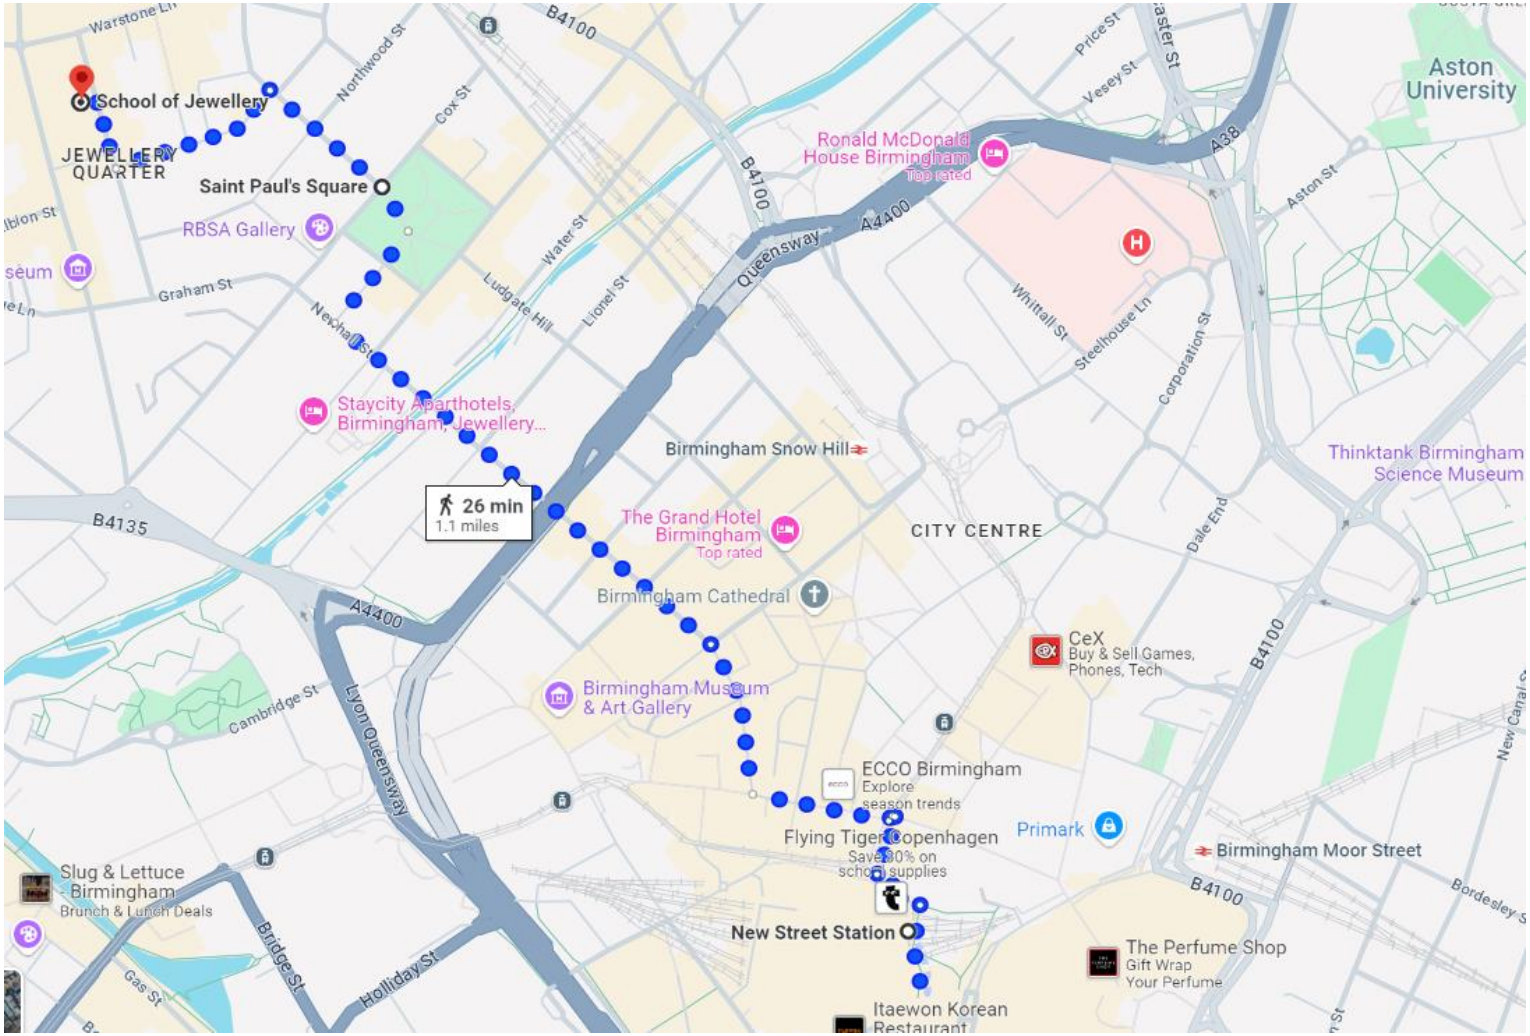
New Street Station
East Mews, Birmingham B2 4PY

- Walk south-west towards Moor Street Link
  397 ft
- Take the pedestrian overpass
  Take the stairs
  230 ft
- Turn right towards New St
  233 ft
- Turn left onto New St
  10 ft
- Turn left onto Corporation St
  23 ft
- Turn right onto New St
  0.1 mi
- Turn right onto Bennetts Hill
  0.1 mi
- Continue onto Newhall St
  0.4 mi
- Turn right
  443 ft
- Turn left
  190 ft

20 min (0.9 mi)

St Paul's Square
Birmingham

- Walk north-west on Caroline St towards Northwood St
  0.1 mi
- Turn left onto Regent Pl
  0.1 mi
- Turn right onto Vittoria St
  Destination will be on the left
  253 ft



New Street station to School of Jewellery – 30 minutes (1.1 miles) [Click here for this route on Google Maps]

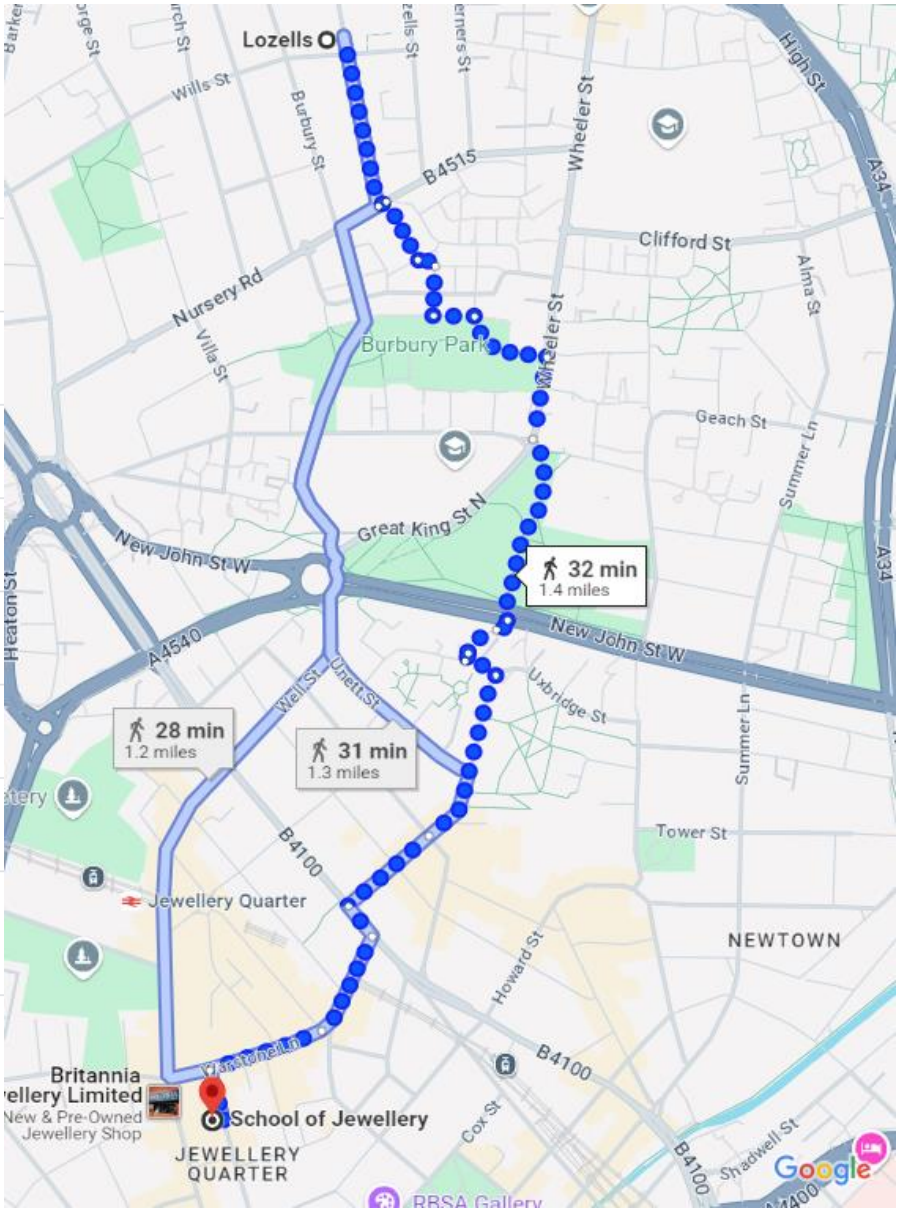
Coming from New Street Station? This route will take School of Jewellery students on campus via the impressive St Paul's Square where you will find plenty of green space by the historic landmark which is just a 5-minute walk away from campus.

Did you know? St Paul's Square has been in the Jewellery Quarter since 1779, and it is the last remaining Georgian Square in the city of Birmingham.

Lozells
Birmingham

- Walk south on Carpenters Rd towards Wills St — 0.2 mi
- Turn left onto Gerrard St/B4515 — 52 ft
- Turn right — 348 ft
- Turn left — 105 ft
- Slight right — 259 ft
- Turn left — 213 ft
- Turn right towards Wheeler St — 482 ft
- Turn right onto Wheeler St — 436 ft
- Turn left — 0.2 mi
- Slight right towards Mosborough Cres — 89 ft
- Slight right towards Mosborough Cres — 194 ft
- Turn left towards Mosborough Cres — 10 ft
- Turn right towards Mosborough Cres — 43 ft
- Turn left onto Mosborough Cres — 180 ft
- Turn right onto Great Hampton Row — 0.2 mi
- Continue onto Harford St — 0.1 mi
- Turn left onto Great Hampton St/B4100 — 203 ft
- Turn right onto Hall St — 0.1 mi
- Continue onto Warstone Ln — 0.1 mi
- Turn left onto Vittoria St
  Destination will be on the right — 272 ft

School of Jewellery
82-86 Vittoria St, Birmingham B1 3PA



Lozells to School of Jewellery – 35 minutes (1.4 miles) [Click here for this route on Google Maps]

Lozells is home to lots of our students from second year onwards. If you're living in the area and study at School of Jewellery, you could walk to campus in just over half an hour, with several parks and gardens on the way to make the journey even more enjoyable.

Did you know? Taking this route by foot five times a week (one way) would help you reach your recommended weekly exercise goal of 150 minutes of moderate intensity activity. Why not challenge yourself and go both ways on foot?