6	Course Description
	Overview Do you want to enhance your career in health and social care? Our Assistant Practitioner (Health) Apprenticeship is ideal for those already working a minimum of 30 hours per week within a health and social care setting. This access course, taught by our experienced clinical staff, will allow you to develop your knowledge and skills to enable you to progress to Assistant Practitioner level. What's covered in the course? The Assistant Practitioner (Health) is a full-time apprenticeship delivered at the City South campus and has been carefully designed to provide the skills you and your employer need in line with the apprenticeship standard as well as relevant practice specific requirements. A variety of Assistant Practitioner pathways can be studied including Maternity, Mammography, Diagnostic Radiography, Surgical Care Support and Rehabilitation. Expert teaching staff in our Schools of Nursing and Midwifery and Health Sciences provide the guidance needed to make sure you secure the necessary knowledge, skills and behaviours that will advance your career within your chosen pathway. The apprenticeship equips successful candidates for a range of roles in health or social care settings, local authorities, the voluntary sector and private care settings. You will explore the scope of professional practice within your specific pathways as well as in the areas of compassionate care delivery, risk management, responsibility and accountability, infection prevention and control, confidentiality, consent, safeguarding and many more areas aligned to the apprenticeship standard. The course offers a wide range of Core Modules to meet the knowledge, skills, and behaviours within the Assistant Practitioner (Health) course including anatomy and physiology, social, psychological and cultural influences relevant to your area of work. It covers professional issues relating to the boundaries of practice, patient assessment and holistic care. It also

	provides a thorough understanding of standard operating procedures and relevant national service frameworks. In addition to this additional pathway specific modules will enable you to undertake more in-depth study in an area relevant to your role, practice and service user group. Following successful completion of 200 credits of the Foundation Degree, a Gateway Review and Assessment is undertaken in conjunction with the employer. The apprentice's employer must confirm that they think the apprentice. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Is working at or above the occupational standard as an assistant practitioner (health) Has the evidence required to pass the gateway and is ready to take the EPA An apprentice must have achieved 200 credits of the Foundation Degree Assistant Practitioner (Health). Gateway: Review & Assessment - Undertaken in conjunction with the employer

In order to enter Gateway, learners must complete a series of mandatory workshops to prepare for End Point Assessment. Learners will also be required to collate evidence towards their portfolio. Workshops will take place weekly during Semester 2 and 3.

On successful completion of 200 credits, learners will be entered for Gateway.

End Point Assessment

- An observation of practice
- A professional discussion underpinned by a portfolio of evidence.

16 Overall Student Workload and Balance of Assessment

Overall student workload consists of class contact hours, independent learning, and assessment activity, with each credit taken equating to a total study time of around 10 hours. While actual contact hours may depend on the pathway selected, the following information gives an indication of how much time students will need to allocate to different activities at each level of the course.

- Scheduled Learning includes lectures, practical classes, and workshops, contact time specified in timetable.
- Directed Learning includes work-based learning, external visits, on-line activity, Graduate+, peer learning.

The balance of assessment by mode of assessment (e.g., coursework, exam, and in-person) depends on the pathway chosen. The approximate percentage of the course assessed by coursework, exam and in-person is shown below.
