6	Course Description
	The BA (Hons) Fashion Communication is a fashion-focused visual design course. We combine art direction, styling, graphic design, film, animation, photography, journalism, events, and trend forecasting for fashion. We brand, style, write, shoot, package, and direct. As an interdisciplinary course, we communicate to consumers in both the real world and the metaverse, driven by creative storytelling. We are not mere followers; we are pioneers, embracing a forward-thinking mindset that positions us at the forefront. Our focus is on developing fashion communicators with exceptional craft skills, ready to influence the industry with strong future-proofing capabilities. Our students are at the cutting edge of contemporary fashion communication, working within the metaverse while maintaining a strong foundation in print design and live events, meeting the fashion industry's highest standards of visual communication. We challenge conventions by seamlessly blending design, art direction, and promotion to convey ideas and concepts. Envision yourself art directing and orchestrating magazine covers, fashion shoots, directing fashion films, music videos and shaping brands visual identities with strategic finesse. Rooted in our love of tradition and craft, we are equally committed to pushing the boundaries of innovation and sustainability for a better world. As global citizens, we champion principles addressing climate issues, racial equality, and social justice. We are not just fashion creators; we are advocates for positive change. We pride ourselves at being at the core of the fashion industry and influencing its future. Our teaching team is made up of industry specialists and we have a proven track record of working with top brands and influential industry practitioners. We are an award-winning course that shapes fashion communicators that can work in teams, as individuals as well as nurturing entrepreneurs and future proofers. In this nurturing environment, pastoral care is at the core of our ethos. We care about your growth as an individual, fostering a supportive community where your well-being matters. Our commitment extends beyond the academic, ensuring that you not only succeed in your creative pursuits but also feel valued and supported on a personal level.

14	Course Learning, Teaching and Assessment Strategy
	Course Learning, Teaching and Assessment Strategy Teaching and Learning: We offer a dynamic learning environment at BCU, where our curriculum unfolds within a studio setting designed to mirror the professional standards of the industry. Within this framework, lectures and workshops intersect to provide a seamless integration of theoretical understanding and practical application. You will benefit from constructive feedback offered by lecturers, technicians, and peers, fostering a collaborative atmosphere conducive to skill refinement and academic advancement. In addition to structured sessions, seminars offer opportunities for in-depth exploration of fashion-related topics. Guided by experienced faculty and industry professionals, these discussions encourage critical thinking and facilitate a deeper comprehension of the complexities inherent in the fashion industry. You will engage in dialogue aimed at exploring the intersections of craft skills, entrepreneurial pursuits, and sustainable practices within the realm of fashion communication, thereby gaining insights into contemporary trends and real-world applications. While adhering to the prescribed modules and associated deadlines, you are encouraged to adopt a holistic approach to your academic experience. Utilising the extensive resources available at BCU, including screen and digital print rooms, photography studios, 3D printing facilities, and traditional print rooms, you have the opportunity to further your practical skills and explore your creative potential.

Furthermore, collaboration beyond the confines of one's academic discipline is actively encouraged. Located at our city centre campus, Parkside serves as a hub for interdisciplinary interaction, allowing students from various fields such as business, law, graphic design, and games design to exchange ideas and perspectives, enriching their educational experience.

At BCU, we are committed to providing students with a comprehensive educational experience that prepares them for success in the competitive landscape of the fashion industry and beyond.

Assessment:

We assess your work in several ways. There are no exams instead, you will submit course work, including research documents, books, lookbooks, magazines, films, animations, and both digital and printed work. You will receive assessment feedback throughout the modules such as:

- Peer reviews. This will be conducted in sessions. We will teach you how to give constructive feedback on your peer's work and help you to develop a confident attitude to receiving critical feedback from others.
- Mid module assessment [Formative] - This may be written or verbal. This will be a mixture of 1-1 and group tutorials.
- End of module assessment– [Summative] - Written feedback with recognition of strengths found in your final submissions and suggestions for improvements.

All feedback is a friendly form of constructive feedback that will give you the tools to either elevate your work within a module or take ideas forward to build ideas within the next module.

16	Overall Student Workload and Balance of Assessment

Overall student workload consists of class contact hours, independent learning and assessment activity, with each credit taken equating to a total study time of around 10 hours. While actual contact hours may depend on the optional modules selected, the following information gives an indication of how much time students will need to allocate to different activities at each level of the course.

- Scheduled Learning includes lectures, practical classes and workshops, contact time specified in timetable
- Directed Learning includes placements, work-based learning, external visits, on-line activity, Graduate+, peer learning
- Private Study includes preparation for exams

The balance of assessment by mode of assessment (e.g. coursework, exam and in-person) depends to some extent on the optional modules chosen by students. The approximate percentage of the course assessed by coursework, exam and in-person is shown below.

Level 4
